

The dismantling of existing ownership regulations of media that is now being considered should be open for more public awareness and comment. I feel your new proposals, if passed will decrease the freedom of Americans to receive diverse views. It would be detrimental to the tenants of American society and its democratic future. I strongly hope you will consider the American people rather than the corporation profits.